PROJECT

The Comenius Regional Project "Come and Sing", financed by the European Union, concerns the creation of a network of organizations both at a local level (Regione Abruzzo), and at transnational level with the Patras region of Western Greece.

The focus of the project is the study and the recovery of popular traditions, ethno-music song and folks dances and the realization of a training action directed to students, parents, grandparents and citizens of the communities involved .

Project objectives:

- Creation of a research laboratory about music, dance and popular traditions of the regions involved;
- Study and comparison with school systems of the two involved European regions (Abruzzo and Western Greece);
- Exchange of innovative practices ;
- Cooperation between formal and informal educational organizations;
- Development of personal, regional and European identity through exchange of ideas, history and culture;
- Development of a European educational dimension through cultural exchange, aimed at increasing the value of cultural affinity and training skills;
- Strengthening of students' motivation with regard to learning;
- Motivating students to learn foreign languages, especially English.
- Promotion and development in the field of life long learning of educational practices and solutions based on TIC.
